

Weekly Prayers for My Teenage Students

monday

growth

Lord, Help my students be open to new experiences. When it feels easier to shut down or to shut it all out, show them how to open themselves to new life. Let them continue to grow in knowledge, judgement, and moral strength throughout this phase of life. As the expectations upon them get more complex, guide them to stay open to your call.

positivity

God, Bless my students each day with positivity. When challenges appear, give them hope. When they may feel desperate, scared, or uncertain about the future, bless them with an endless attitude of joy. Strengthen their souls with faith that does not falter. Let Your peace rule their hearts.

wednesday

courage

Lord, guide my students to make sound decisions. Strengthen their consciences so that the right priorities will shine through despite any foggy confusion that may cast a shadow during the teenage years. Give them the courage to make choices in a way that aligns with your will.

thursday

self-worth

Lord, show my students their worth. Give them opportunities to see the incredible value in one another. Guide them to remind each other that they are made in Your image. Give each of them a feeling of self-worth when they feel least valued.

character

God, Strengthen the character of each of my students. Keep them pure. Give them the grace to have compassion, the ability to show humility, the prayerfulness to seek You in all situations, the integrity to stand up for what is right, and the courage to live a life that reflects You.
